

NORTHERN SPAIN BY LUXURY TRAIN · 2027 SEASON

Costa Verde Express

Green Spain by luxury train

Six days along the green coast of northern Spain, between Santiago de Compostela and Bilbao.

6 DAYS · 5 NIGHTS

SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA ⇄ BILBAO

SATURDAY DEPARTURES, MAY TO OCTOBER 2027

WELCOME ABOARD

Costa Verde Express

The Costa Verde Express runs through Galicia, Asturias, Cantabria and the Basque Country, between the pilgrim city of Santiago de Compostela and Bilbao. The route follows the Bay of Biscay and turns inland to the Picos de Europa, with guided visits every day.

The train carries no more than 46 guests in 23 Gran Clase Suites. It is parked at a station every night, so you sleep without movement and can walk into town after dinner.

Everything on the programme is included: your suite, all meals with wine, the guided excursions with entrance fees, the coach transfers and the entertainment on board.

Life on board

Four lounge carriages are the social heart of the train. The pub car has a bar and a small dance floor, with music and entertainment in the evenings; the others are quieter salons for reading, conversation and the view.

Breakfast is a buffet on board. Lunch and dinner are taken in the dining car or in restaurants along the route, with wines, coffee and liqueurs included. Expect Galician seafood, Asturian cheeses and cider, and Basque cooking.

Wi-Fi works over the mobile network and is patchy through the mountains. There is no dress code; comfortable shoes and a rain layer are best for the daily visits.

Ribadeo

Luarca

Picos de Europa

Santiago de Compostela to Bilbao

Starts Saturday in Santiago de Compostela
Ends Thursday, after lunch in Bilbao

Day 1 SAT

Santiago de Compostela · Ferrol · Viveiro Night: Viveiro (on board)

Reception in Santiago de Compostela and a visit to its historic centre, one of the great pilgrim cities of Europe, followed by lunch. A coach takes us to Ferrol, where we board the train and meet the crew, and the train sets off for Viveiro.

Day 2

Viveiro · Ribadeo · Taramundi · Luarca Night: Luarca

Along the Lugo coast to Ribadeo, then inland to the Taramundi area, known for its traditional crafts and green valleys. The train continues into Asturias to Luarca.

Day 3

Luarca · Oviedo · Gijón · Llanes Night: Llanes

Visits to Oviedo, the Asturian capital, and Gijón, the lively city on the Bay of Biscay. In the evening the train follows the coast to Llanes.

Day 4

Llanes · Arenas de Cabrales · Cabezón de la Sal Night: Cabezón de la Sal

A day in the Picos de Europa, with its mountain villages and the Cabrales area, home of the famous blue cheese. The train then continues into Cantabria.

Day 5

Cabezón de la Sal · Santillana del Mar · Santander Night: Santander

The medieval village of Santillana del Mar and the Altamira Neocave, the faithful replica of the prehistoric cave paintings. Lunch as the train continues to Santander, with free time in the city.

Day 6

Santander · Bilbao

The train arrives in Bilbao at breakfast and we say goodbye to the crew. A visit to Bilbao, including the Guggenheim Museum, and lunch. End of the journey.

Visits follow the 2027 programme. Individual visits are occasionally changed or replaced on the day because of scheduling, road conditions or weather, and the crew confirms each day's plan on board.

Bilbao to Santiago de Compostela

Starts Saturday in Bilbao
Ends Thursday in Santiago de Compostela

Day 1
SAT

Bilbao · Santander Night: Santander

Welcome in Bilbao with a visit to the city, including the Guggenheim Museum. We board the train, which runs west to Santander.

Day 2

Santander · Santillana del Mar · Cabezón de la Sal Night: Cabezón de la Sal

Santander, then the medieval village of Santillana del Mar and the Altamira Neocave. The train continues to Cabezón de la Sal.

Day 3

Cabezón de la Sal · Arenas de Cabrales · Llanes Night: Llanes

A day in the Picos de Europa, with its mountain villages and the Cabrales area, before the train reaches Llanes on the Asturian coast.

Day 4

Llanes · Gijón · Oviedo · Luarca Night: Luarca

Visits to Gijón and Oviedo, then the train continues west to Luarca.

Day 5

Luarca · Taramundi · Ribadeo · Viveiro Night: Viveiro

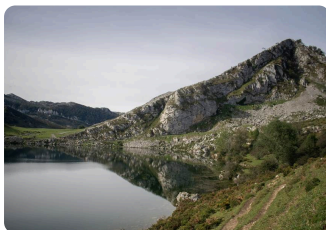

The Taramundi area, known for its traditional crafts, and Ribadeo, before the train runs along the Lugo coast to Viveiro.

Day 6

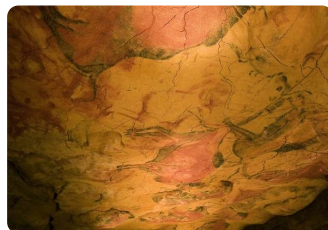

Viveiro · Ferrol · Santiago de Compostela

The train arrives in Ferrol, where we leave it and continue by coach to Santiago de Compostela. End of the journey.

Visits follow the 2027 programme. Individual visits are occasionally changed or replaced on the day because of scheduling, road conditions or weather, and the crew confirms each day's plan on board. Bilbao to Santiago de Compostela visits the same places in reverse order; exact timings are confirmed with your booking.

Good to know

Arriving

We suggest arriving in Santiago or Bilbao at least one day early. Your travel voucher gives the exact meeting point.

Accessibility

Boarding involves steps, corridors on historic trains are narrow and the daily visits include walking. Please talk to us before booking if mobility is a concern.

Weather

Northern Spain has a mild Atlantic climate. Bring a light jacket for the evenings and a rain layer at any time of year.

On-board payments

Extras on board can be paid in euros or by major credit card. Electricity is 220 V.

Travel documents

Your passport should be valid for at least six months after you leave Spain. Check visa rules for your nationality.
